Supply Chain Human Rights Due Diligence Process

The Anritsu CSR Procurement Guideline is distributed to supply chain business partners to seek their understandings of the Guideline. Also, letters of consent are obtained from the business partners to the effect that they will respect and cooperate with initiatives for the CSR Procurement Policy.

Anritsu also distributes CSR procurement surveys to its business partners and endeavors to understand the state of CSR procurement in the supply chain through the answers to the surveys.

The surveys include the questions concerning the following topics:

1. Prohibit forced labor,
2. Prohibit inhumane treatment and infringements of human rights,
3. Prohibit child labor,
4. Prohibit discrimination,
5. Pay appropriate wages,
6. Regulate working hours,
7. Respect the rights to freedom of association

Supply Chain Risk Assessment (including the report of activity)

Anritsu grasps human rights risks in the supply chain by analysing and assessing the content of the answers to the CSR procurement surveys. It also holds briefings for supply chain business partners, several times a year, to explain Anritsu CSR Management and CSR Procurement Policy and requests their understandings of CSR procurement.

The effectiveness of the supply chain business partners’ CSR procurement is confirmed from the content of the answers to the CSR procurement surveys, as well as by monitoring the number of answers and response rates to the surveys. In addition, site visits to supply chain business partners have been scheduled to be conducted to confirm the effectiveness of CSR procurement in the supply chain.

Regarding the human rights risks of the supply chain from October 2017 to September 2018 “Task Force for Human Rights in Supply Chain” organized on February 2017 for grasping the risk of the human rights in the supply chain. In order to evaluate the risk in the supply chain "Supply Chain Human Rights Due Diligence Process" has started as follows.

- In business partner meeting the Global Procurement Operation Division introduced Anritsu Group Modern Slavery Statement to the participant business partner companies, and ask to cooperate the CSR survey and/or the factory audit.
- The questionnaire for the CSR survey have been carried out to the main 116 suppliers. And the task force has analysed and evaluated the contents of the questionnaires. And the factory visit to the several suppliers has been performed. In the result we judged no significant risk of the human rights in our supply chain.
- Regarding "Human Rights Due Diligence for Supply Chain" the following items will be performed until March 2018.
 - ① Implementation of the questionnaire and Preparation of the factory visit in FY2018
 - ② Implementation of the factory audit regarding the Human Rights in FY2018
