3. Reasons for change

The Company Group has formulated the long-term business plan which covers a three-year period beginning in fiscal 2015. Under the plan, it is pressing ahead with the overseas development of the subsidiary’s quality assurance solution business, targeting the food and pharmaceutical markets.

As the driving force to accelerate the expansion of the business into the global market, the subsidiary will change its trade name to “Anritsu Infivis Co., Ltd.” Having the word “Infivis*” preceded by the Company’s brand name “Anritsu,” the new name conveys the aspiration to share its vision and realize profitable and sustainable growth together with customers. The Company continues to strive for further growth in the Group business, and commits to improving its corporate value through the efforts to enhance its brand power and expand business domains.

*“Infivis” is a word coined from “infinite” and “vision.”

4. Scheduled date for change

October 1, 2015
